

So Weird

"Cause You're Watching Over Me"

You lift me up to touch the sky
When there's a tear you wipe my eye
Everything I think you know
Where I am you always go

I close my eyes, I know you're here
Open them wide and you appear
I am always safe and free
'Cause you're watching over me

From the biggest cloud up in the sky
To a tiny spot upon a fly
Everyone I choose to be
You are watching over me

I close my eyes, I know you're here
Open them wide and you appear
I am always safe and free
'Cause you're watching over me

You are shadow to my light
You take the darkness from the night
I am always safe and free
'Cause you're watching over me
