CONSTANT SHIPS

Constant ship sail, i watched from the bay
The border lies open but i've wrestled these skips again
It's the reason she died
It's the reason she died, he said i won't blame you
Ascensions come
I guess i know what's right
I can hardly wait
The satellite was overboard and i'll be home again
With all that i know
Curled and disarmed, i clung to the rail
The road has no clearance but this wreckage will hurt to send
It's the reason i cried
It's the reason i cried i said i won't name you
Ascensions come
I guess i know what's right
I can hardly wait
The battle lines were overdrawn and i'll be home again
With all that i know
The senator was on the ball
He asked me to stay
Cancelled the curtain call
And he walked me away from all that i know
