OTHERWISE OPEN

The time is now to come of age
Pack up your doubts don't let them find their feet again
All this division isn't helping me mend
And old time religion is begging to depend
I rode through the summer waiting for an end
And i spent
So little time with this one
Before i swiftly got bored
So little time with this one lately
Maybe that's why i needed
Why i wanted to be ignored
Maybe that's why i feel so jaded
Rescue rangers come again
Asked them to teach and then turn them all away
All this confusion is tucked into the fray
And all these revisions had never been made
Bound by the news and the worry lines of age
And i paid
Paid no mind to this one
So i could never get bored
Paid no mind to this your lady
Maybe that's why i needed
Why i wanted to be ignored
Maybe that's why i feel degraded

I'm otherwise open
All this rain won't let me in

Spent no time with this one
Before i swiftly got bored
Spend no time with this your lady
Maybe that's why i needed
Why i wanted to be ignored
Maybe that's why i feel so jaded
I'm otherwise open
