Nevermind the things that we don't do
Nevermind the words that we don't say
When we touch the world just fades away
I don't care your clothes are on the floor
You don't mind I'll never know the score
Just a look a smile from you my world is right

Tell me what I wanna hear baby
Come on over next to me honey

We can scream and we can fight but
We'll make up before the nights up and it's okay
Oh whoa nevermind cause we are in love

And I can cry and say I hate you and
You can slam the door like were through but I don't care
Oh whoa nevermind cause we are in love

Yesterday we started out just fine
You were late and I was right on time
And the arguing got started and never stopped
I didn't really mean those thing I said
I should have kept those thoughts inside my head
Then you called and said your sorry too

Now we gotta make it up lover
We could never be without each other

We can scream and we can fight but
We'll make up before the nights up and it's okay
Oh whoa nevermind cause we are in love

And I can cry and say I hate you and
You can slam the door I went through and I don't care
Oh whoa nevermind cause we are in love

We can scream and we can fight but
We'll make up before the nights up and it's okay
Oh whoa nevermind cause we are in love

And I can cry and say I hate you and

You can slam the door like were through but I don't care

Oh whoa nevermind cause we are in love

Oh whoa nevermind cause we are in love

Oh whoa nevermind cause we are in love
