How did you go from being
So kind to so cruel
What did I do to change you

How come you changed the tone of
Your voice to so harsh
What did I say to change that in you

And I don't want your cross
Cause I've got my own
And if I have to die
I'd rather die alone
And I don't want your cross
Cause I've got my own
And if I have to die
I'd rather die alone
Without you by my side

I never asked for patience
I never asked for help
And I won't ask a thing from you

And I don't want your cross
Cause I've got my own
And if I have to die
I'd rather die alone

And as for your behavior
I'll be my very own savior
And I don't need the cage where
You kept me safe
You kept me safe
And I don't want your cross
