You can take off that cape
And fly back to where you came from
Cause there's nothing
That you can save me from this time

For once you're too late
And there's nothing
That you can rescue
The city has fallen
And the maiden has lost her mind

And it was an ugly trick
You played on me
You tricked me to believe
You were superman
Superman

Return that old costume
To the store where it once were rented
Cause the time has run out
And you lost the deposit fee

I used to believe
If I was lost then you'd always find me
And I thought you were lost
But what you really lost
Was me

And it was an ugly trick
You played on me
You tricked me to believe
You were superman
Superman

And I really hate to have to say
I somehow love you anyway
Superman or not
