been surrounded by unstoppable glass thinking clearly but not so fast waiting for years just for you now did that lies came true been waiting just a few more moths while my soul haunts
there must be a way to drift away from there
leading me nowhere

i've been anticipated
making deals of intimidation
i can't be rejected
with my one decision
scream
shout
dim
then breakout

cold and thirsty waiting to turn twenty with the lip pierce and tattoo on you i can't understand why i live down the mountains just waiting for you i'm lonely
why does it have to be this way
don't you kiss me
but there's nothing else to say to let me pay (adios)

i've been anticipated
making deals of intimidation
i can't be rejected
with my one decision
scream
shout
dim
then breakout
i've been anticipated
i can't be rejected
with my one decision
scream

dim
then breakout

you make me wanna break....
apart
you make me wanna still...
fall down
make me make me make me make me
MAKE ME!

i can't be rejected
scream
shout
dim
then breakout
i can't be rejected
scream
shout
dim
then breakout
i can't be rejected
scream
shout
dim
then breakout
