You're weak and you're gullible, and I don't care
You're a walking disaster, and I don't care
You cry yourself to sleep, and I don't care You're wasting our time, and I don't care

You knew this day would come, and you did, and you really should have waited Go cry yourself to sleep, and you should, because I'm so faded
You knew this day would come, and it did, and you
really should have waited
so faded

You contradict everything, and I don't care Your logic is twisted, and I don't care I'll pretend to be happy, and I don't care

You cry yourself to sleep, and I don't care
You're weak and you're gullible, and I don't care
You're a walking disaster, and I don't care

should have waited Go cry yourself to sleep, and you should, because I'm
so faded
really should have waited
Go cry yourself to sleep, and you should, because I'm
so faded
Go cry yourself to sleep, and you should, because I'm so faded
