hide and seek now I'm fast asleep once again I missed my turn I feel so naive next to her but maybe I'll get better maybe then I'll never ever ever again disbelieve when you say you love my foolish way she knows you so much better than I do I toss in my sleep and I fret all day long you find it charming that I'm always wrong maybe I'll get better
