Are you loving how you're living

Is it treating you well

Do you greet the early morning alone

Are you leaving who is loving you

In spite of it all

Are you closing it down

To get away from it all

Goodbye my friend

Can't see you again

It's the beginning of the end

Are you spending time around

All the new kids in town

Never a moment alone

It seems so easy for you

But what am I to do

I'm all closed down

Don't want to start anew

You were my best friend

I'll start over again

It's the beginning of the end

Are you loving how you're living

Is it treating you well

Do you greet the early morning alone

Are you leaving who is loving you

In spite of it all

Are you closing it down

To get away from it all

Goodbye my friend

Can't see you again

It's the beginning of the end
