This song's for you!
Stop now go! Well, well, well
Stop, now, go, now, go!
S O L O Star

If you been hated on or lied on, then oh, this song's for
you
If someone's ever told you ain't gon' do good, this
song's for you
If you have been knocked down on, been discouraged
Then I want you to say to yourself
"I rock, I'm hot, fo' sho', I'm not gon' stop, now go"

I've got a lot to prove, so many waitin' on me To fail every step that I take
So I just gotta make sure that I do the best that I can Every way and everything and block all the doubters away
'Cause I'm gonna claim, oh so I'll say

If you been hated on or lied on, then oh, this song's for
you
If someone's ever told you ain't gon' do good, this
song's for you
If you have been knocked down on, been discouraged
Then I want you to say to yourself
"I rock, I'm hot, fo' sho', I'm not gon' stop, now go"

So many people want to have something to say
And make you have to suffer from their lies Happened to me so many times
Inside, I'm building up being happy for others People try to bring you down, but if you don't let em', they can't do it

If you been hated on or lied on, then oh, this song's for
you
If someone's ever told you ain't gon' do good, this
song's for you
If you have been knocked down on, been discouraged
Then I want you to say to yourself
"I rock, I'm hot, fo' sho', I'm not gon' stop, now go"

If someone's ever doubted you
(This song's for you)
If someone's misrouted you
(This song's for you)

Say to yourself, I'm still gon' make it, gon' take it
(This song's for you)
If someone's cheated you
(This song's for you)

If they mistreaded you
(This song's for you)
Say to yourself I prepare for whatever
(This song's for you)

If you been hated on or lied on, then oh, this song's for
you
If someone's ever told you ain't gon' do good, this
song's for you
If you have been knocked down on, been discouraged
Then I want you to say to yourself
"I rock, I'm hot, fo' sho', I'm not gon' stop, now go"

If you been hated on or lied on, then oh, this song's for
you
If someone's ever told you ain't gon' do good, this
song's for you
If you have been knocked down on, been discouraged
Then I want you to say to yourself
"I rock, I'm hot, fo' sho', I'm not gon' stop, now go"

If you been hated on or lied on, then oh, this song's for
you
If someone's ever told you ain't gon' do good, this
song's for you
If you have been knocked down on, been discouraged
Then I want you to say to yourself
"I rock, I'm hot, fo' sho', I'm not gon' stop, now go"
