I don't want to struggle I don't want to fight
I just want to know a better life before I die

I don't know how
I don't know where
I wish I had an answer
Worth a dime
I just want to know
A better life while there's still time

Life's too short I don't have time
I've got some big decisions I must make
Summer's almost gone
And fall is much too hard to fake

Looking through a window
As the seasons pass me by
Looking through a window
As the seasons pass me by

I want to laugh I want to play
I want to watch the sunset in the sky
I just want to know a better life before I die

Life's too short I don't have time
I've got some big decisions I must make
Summer's almost gone
And fall is much too hard to fake

Looking through a window
As the seasons pass me by
Looking through a window
As the seasons pass me by

I want to laugh I want to play
I want to watch the sunset in the sky
I don't want to sit here
As the seasons pass me by

I don't know how I don't know where
I wish I had an answer worth a dime

I just want to know a better life
While there's still time
