I know that this is all for me
Walking these streets and
Beer in the morning
With us knowing
That there is more than what I see and
It feels like there is anger burning inside of me

So we wake up
You're not sleeping alone tonight
Cause we wake up
Between the waves and time

And so you grin as I walk away
Not knowing what I will do to hide the pain
I wished illusions real
This pain is burning inside of me

So we wake up
You're not sleeping alone tonight
Cause we all wake up
Between the waves and time

WAKE, WAKE UP
WAKE, ME UP

So we wake up
You're not sleeping alone tonight
So we wake up
Between the waves and time

TONIGHT TONIGHT
