Listen, woman, you needn't look so stupid
When I call your name out loud
'Cos everybody knows that you're a sweet-smiling girl
With intelligence, you know how

I wouldn't want anyone else to know
About the way you really are

You're just a rock 'n' roll queen
You know what I mean
And I'm just a rock 'n' roll star

Listen, woman, you needn't go to bed
With everybody that you meet
'Cos everybody knows that you're a sweet-smiling girl
With intelligence in your feet

I wouldn't want everyone else to know
About the way you really are

You're just a rock 'n' roll queen
You know what I mean
And I'm just a rock 'n' roll star

You're just a rock 'n' roll queen
You know what I mean
And I'm just a rock 'n' roll star

Just a rock 'n' roll queen
You know what I mean
And I'm just a rock 'n' roll star

You're just a rock 'n' roll queen
You know what I mean
And I'm just a rock 'n' roll star

You're just a rock 'n' roll queen
You know what I mean
And I'm just a rock 'n' roll star
