Because I happen to be a foolish thick headed honkey donkey.

And when a thick headed donkey like me makes up her foolish thick headed mind, most of the time she gets what she wants. And you are going to help me.

Ah ah ah ah ah

Ah ah ah ah ah

Give me a kiss and I'll smile again.

Â'As long As I Toughen Up My SoundÂ', played about a dozen shows or so under that name, all neighbours came.

Should have married a quiet little girl who's afraid of everything.

Ah ah ah ah ah

Ah ah ah ah ah

I could not hear a drum beat, but my heart beat, with it, go go go go beat it and I want it and I need it

Because I happen to be a foolish thick headed honkey donkey

Should make it, honkey, short and sweet !
