Wanting to pretend this will never end
Fighting for so long
Nothing can go wrong
Trying to free
Everything in me
And on and on and on again
And on and on and on again

Laying there so lost in emotion
Searching for an endless devotion
Wanting to pretend this will never end
And on and on and on again
And on and on and on again

So long
To the life we used to know
So long
To your past and my past
So long
To the life we used to know
So long
So long

Moving to a life that we've chosen
Holding all our memories frozen
Wanting to pretend this will never end
And on and on and on again
And on and on and on

So long
To the life we used to know
So long
To your past and my past
So long
To the life we used to know
So long
So long

Never let them lead you away
Getting stronger everyday
Wouldn't ever give this away
Never gonna change girl

So long (My past)
To the life we used to know (Is your past)
So long (My past)
To your past and my past (And your past)
So long (My past)
To the life we used to know (Is your past)
So long (My past)
So long (Is your past)
