"The Man Behind The Wall"

Visit "The Man Behind The Wall" on MotoLyrics.com

Demons and elves of insanity
Laughing all the time
Between these walls
Whispering voices
Chilling noises
Deep inside my head
Medicated isolated
In a concrete cell
Look at the mirror
I am the man behind the wall
A breed of evil
I am the man behind the wall
Ask myself, is it really me
Or is it someone else
I lose control
Crawling shadows
Dance in circles
Under tungsten light
Abstract paintings twisted faces
Chaos in my mind
Am I dead or am I alive
Is this real or is it Hell
