Please spare me your excuses
Don't look me in the eyes
I think were past the awkward hellos
So far past goodbye
Remember all the "thank yous"
They meant the world to me
It must of went to your head
Those words meant everything
Its a fucking shame man my heart was always there
You never even told me so why did i care
I did my best more than i had
All for you I'll never understand
If this is who you are
If this is who you choose to be
Just die for all i care cause you're dead to me
You're dead to me
