Why did this have to change I liked it as it was with every seasons changing I kind of wish I could. With all this sorrow and all this pain inside, with all this sorrow and all this pain inside of you never wanted anything.
Why did this have to change I liked it as it was with every seasons changing I kind of wish I could send you a note or two but it never get to you, so this one's for those broken chords that make me miss you. With all
and all this pain inside of you never wanted anything.
Now you're alone in the world tonight I'll be here waiting always, now you're alone in the world tonight I'll be here waiting always.
