I'd sacrifice, if you take it out on me this way I had such a good day, we had to get home before it rained it burned us away. I guess this feeling it overcomes, on the darkest day my shadow it sailed away, I hope that your doing fine I know you made, you made the sun decline. The things I might say, I think this feeling it flew away, I guess you're, you're on your own today I think that you'll find it, if you stay take these words away these memories they might fade I hope you're on, you're on your own today, I think that we'll find it. I guess this feeling it overcomes, on the darkest day my shadow it sailed away, I hope that your doing fine I know you made you made the sun decline. I hope that you're doing well I know you made the sun decline you must be mad at me, on the darkest day my shadow it sailed away, darkest day.
