Do you walk the plank with a prayer on your lips
Or the memory of our first kiss
And as you pray to God to save you Tell me can he teach you how to swim?

Calling all hands on deck, the water's rough for as far as I can tell
Well I never thought I'd see myself with anybody else
You went overboard with your treachery, in a classic
sense you lead this mutiny
You had wandering lips so I jumped ship, but I sure as hell can't drown without you anchoring me down anymore

Now I sail alone, throwing overboard everything that I've ever known Words won't break bones, but I'll cast the first stone
I hope it hits home, but I don't think that you'll ever know Mayday, mayday, until you're on your own Mayday, mayday, you're on your own...

Calling all hands on deck, the water's rough for as far as I can tell
Well I never thought I'd see myself with anybody else

You went overboard with your treachery, in a classic
sense you lead this mutiny
You had wandering lips so I jumped ship, but I sure as hell can't drown without you anchoring me down
anymore

You're not anchoring me down!

Calling all hands on deck, the water's rough for as far as I can tell
Well I never thought I'd see myself with anybody else
You went overboard with your treachery, in a classic
sense you lead this mutiny
You had wandering lips so I jumped ship, but I sure as hell can't drown without you anchoring me down
anymore

You're not anchoring me down!

All hands on deck, said I knew it I held steadfast while you sold me out You went overboard with your treachery Loose lips sink ships

You're not anchoring me down!
