Oregon girl ive been around the world but ive never seen another Oregon girl.

Oregon girl with your lips and curls

I want a taste of that Oregon girl

There's a mountain

There's a time to

They were put up there to keep us apart

So I watch you making plans and I make plans

You could kick a drum but

You just try to stop me now from movin' on with an

Oregon girl

HEY!

Wait for me another year or two

I will graduate and marry you

You roll the number and I'll buy the lumber

To build a house up on an Oregon hill

There's a mountain

There's a time to

They were put up there to keep us apart

So I watch you making plans and I make plans

You could grow a thumb

But you just try to stop me now

From movin' on with an Oregon girl
