It's always something
you told a lie, just aside of feelin nothin you spend yr sundays, avoiding trouble while uderground there's a whirlpool hummin don't say i never, you know it's nothin i've seen your hands man they couldn't be whiter so send a wire, write a letter, let me know if your there and if your hearts still

thumpin

pangea we used to be together, why'd we have to drift
apart

get up, and get out

i've seen your hands man they couldn't be whiter send a wire, write a letter,

apart

oh oh, and it sounds much better, when sound comes together
if you get this letter, keep it in a box with all my sox you lost and you found you used to be around, tell me why'd we have to drift apart
