I can't believe
You would turn your back on me
Thought you'd be mine eternally
But you proved me wrong

Party in the street
Rockin' to the beat
(Party, party)
That's the last time I saw you

Photographs, a goodbye note
"See you 'round" was all you wrote
Something's dying here
Between you and me

You've been gone 2 long, gone 2 long
And I just can't keep hangin' on forever
We should be together

You've been gone 2 long, gone 2 long
And I just can't keep hangin' on forever
We should be together

(We should be together)

I believed in us
Love like this was meant to be
And now you leave me here alone
Your heart was my home

Shining in the crowd
Standing tall and proud
(Shining, shining)
Tell me, what did I do wrong?

Photographs, a goodbye note
"See you 'round" was all you wrote
Something's dying here
Between you and me

You've been gone 2 long, gone 2 long
And I just can't keep hangin' on forever, no

We should be together

You've been gone 2 long, gone 2 long
And I just can't keep hangin' on forever, no
We should be together

You've been gone 2 long, gone 2 long
And I just can't keep hangin' on forever, no
We should be together (right now)

You've been gone 2 long, gone 2 long
And I just can't keep hangin, on forever (hangin' on)
We should be together

What you gonna do when you're by yourself
All alone at night when you call my name
And want me back again
I'll come back again, whoa

What you gonna do when you miss my lips
And my tender kiss, will it make you trip?
Whoa, will it make you trip?

You've been gone 2 long, gone 2 long
And I just can't keep hanging on forever
(You're makin' me cry again)
We should be together
(I'm not gonna die again)

You've been gone 2 long, gone 2 long
And I just can't keep hanging on forever
(You're makin' me cry again)
We should be together
(I'm not gonna die again)

You've been gone 2 long, gone 2 long
And I just can't keep hanging on forever
(You're makin' me cry again)
We should be together
(I'm not gonna die again)
Forever, forever, together

You've been gone 2 long, gone 2 long
And I just can't keep hangin' on
We should be together

There's a party in the street
And you're rockin' to the beat
That's the last time I saw you

There's a party in the street

And you're rockin' to the beat
That's the last time I saw you

There's a party in the street
And you're rockin' to the beat
That's the last time I saw you
