I could offer you a thousand things
But with a lot of them you wouldn't bother
I could buy you ten real diamond rings
But I'm sure that you would want another

I could take a plane and I could fly away
I could steal a car and I could drive away
You have brought me a lot of things
But the main one that you've brought was trouble

You put your finger to the trigger and you shot my heart
Well now, I'm really gonna burst your bubble
I could take a plane and I could fly away
I could steal a car and I could drive away

But I'm in too deep, there's no getting out of it
In too deep, no doubt about it
In too deep, there's no getting out of it
In too deep, no doubt about it
Too deep, too deep

I could call you a lot of things
I could say there'll never be another
Every time the situation feels like it is close
I've got to turn around and say, "Don't bother"

I could take a plane and I could fly away
I could steal a car and I could drive away

But I'm in too deep, there's no getting out of it
In too deep, no doubt about it
In too deep, there's no getting out of it
In too deep, no doubt about it

In too deep, there's no getting out of it
In too deep, no doubt about it
In too deep, there's no getting out of it
In too deep, no doubt about it

I could take a plane and I could fly away
I could steal a car and I could drive away

I could offer to you a thousand things
But with a lot of them you wouldn't bother

I could buy you ten real diamond rings
But I'm sure that you would want another
I could take a plane and I could fly away
I could steal a car and I could drive away

But I'm in too deep, there's no getting out of it
In too deep, no doubt about it
In too deep, there's no getting out of it
In too deep, no doubt about it

In too deep, there's no getting out of it
In too deep, no doubt about it
In too deep, there's no getting out of it
In too deep, no doubt about it

In too deep, there's no getting out of it
In too deep, no doubt about it
In too deep, there's no getting out of it
