Come to the depths of the room in my heart
Because i'm longing to know you the God that you are
You are, You are the only one

And all I can see in the moment of grace
Is a love so complete I can feel I can taste
You are, You are the only one

Come to the depths of the room in my heart
Because i'm longing to know you the God that you are
You are, You are the only one

Rains pour down
we can hear the sound, on the barren ground
earth craves on, like a child
We long for you

And Jesus dig deep within like a plow to the earth
You break me on solid ground so i learn to serve
You are, You are the only one

Won't you come on Jesus and come right now Won't you come as you pour your spirit down
You are, You are the only one

Rains pour down
we can hear the sound, on the barren ground
earth craves on, like a child
Rains pour down
we can hear the sound, on the barren ground
earth craves on, like a child

We long for you
