Modern life is a 24/7 binge-and-purge
Human skin on robot bones
The love we buy is a cheap-lust throw-away power-play

So strip it down to the root
Strip it down to the bone
Strip it down to the lie that we're buying

Strip it down to the core
Strip it down to the floor
Strip it down to the lie that we're buying

And now you can't believe in anything
Because it all just leaves you wondering
Is there anything inside?

And now you can't believe in anything
Because it all just leaves you wondering
Is there anything inside?

Modern life is a 24/7 binge-and-purge
Human skin on robot bones
The love we buy is a cheap-lust throw-away power-play

Strip it down to the root
Strip it down to the bone
Strip it down to the lie that we're buying

Strip it down to the core
Strip it down to the floor
Strip it down to the lie that we're buying

And now you can't believe in anything
Because it all just leaves you wondering
Is there anything inside?

And now you can't believe in anything
Because it all just leaves you wondering
Is there anything inside?

And now you can't believe in anything
Because it all just leaves you wondering

Is there anything inside?

And now you can't believe in anything
Because it all just leaves you wondering
Is there anything inside?
