and I wanted that heat so bad I could taste the fire on your breath and I wanted in your storm so bad I could taste the lightning on your breath I watched you hold the son in your arms while he bled
to death
he grew so pale next to you the world is so pale next to you your hair is coxcomb red your eyes are viper black(x2) you said every road is a good road between the next road and your last road every love is your best love and every love is your last love and every kiss is a goodbye(x2)
to death
your hair is coxcomb red your eyes are viper black(x3)
