you mistrusted what will bleed what will not die will not leave the heart was first in that line though it was under those conditions we were free (x3)
under those conditions
of pain that would not leave you were all i ever trusted you're self made (x3)
you made it on hard work and risk hard work (x3)
how will i live without you without your customs of working and thinking action through these days are obvious to you, budgetive how selfish for time to conclude what would be the day for leaving to work it's charm on you and i can tell by that look you were thingking the same thing to if this can't last just what can last (x2) then it's lights out after this kiss (x2) then time can't torment us (x2) this will have to serve (x3) goodnight lover (x2)
wherever you are (x3)
