(Curnow / Harding / Clift)

Now I'm without you
Oh, why did I doubt you
You're the one for me

In my mind I thought I saw it you cheating on me
Oh, I was suspicious and I felt the pain
My jealousy rising, I pushed you away

Wait for me
I'll never know why you said goodbye
Wait and see
Don't you know things could be better if only we'd try

Now I'm without you
Oh, why did I doubt you
You're the one for me forever and ever
Now I'm without you
There's something about you that's a part of me
You're all that I need

Like a fool I didn't see it
Your love was for me
Don't make me come begging, I'm out in the cold
I miss you so badly, I need you to hold

Wait for me
I let you go now I paid the price
Wait and see
'cause you know things will be better
It won't happen twice

Now I'm without you
Oh, why did I doubt you
You're the one for me forever and ever
Now I'm without you
There's something about you that's a part of me
You're all that I need

Now I'm without you
Oh, why did I doubt you
You're the one for me forever and ever
Now I'm without you
There's something about you that's a part of me
You're all that I need

Oh, we used to be so close and it's the nights that hurt the most
Now I gotta say that those were the days
Why can't we be back there again

Now I'm without you
Oh, why did I doubt you
You're the one for me forever and ever
Now I'm without you
There's something about you that's a part of me
You're all that I need

Now I'm without you
Oh, why did I doubt you
You're the one for me forever and ever
Now I'm without you
There's something about you that's a part of me
You're all that I need

Now I'm without you
Oh, why did I doubt you
You're the one for me forever and ever
Now I'm without you
There's something about you that's a part of me
