(Curnow / Harding / Clift)

If I had someone I could rely on
I'd give up my heart and my soul
I'd lose all my self control
If I had someone I could rely on
I'd never turn my back on him
and if that boy was you
I'd open my arms and let him right in

I've been waiting, anticipating that love would come to me but things just ain't that easy sometimes love is such a mystery

Got a picture in my mind
I want a very special kind of love
'til then I'll be on my own

If I had someone I could rely on
I'd give up my heart and my soul
I'd lose all my self control
If I had someone I could rely on
I'd never turn my back on him
and if that boy was you
I'd open my arms and let him right in

Now I've said it, I don't regret it
I put my faith in you
Now I've confessed this feeling
I'll soon discover if my dreams've come true

Every day I hope and pray
I need to know that you will stay with me
'Til then I'll be on my own

If I had someone I could rely on
I'd give up my heart and my soul
I'd lose all my self control
If I had someone I could rely on
I'd never turn my back on him

and if that boy was you
I'd open my arms and let him right in

Got a picture in my mind
I want a very special kind of love
'til then I'll be on my own

If I had someone I could rely on
I'd give up my heart and my soul
I'd lose all my self control
If had someone I could rely on
I'd never turn my back on him
I'd open up and let him in

If I had someone I could rely on
I'd give up my heart and my soul
I'd lose all my self control
If had someone I could rely on
I'd never turn my back on him
I'd open up and let him in
