"Danger! Danger!"

Danger! Danger!
You better watch your back!
It ain't safe on the street no more.

There's a danger on the streets in all the town I been to.
All of the scallies round my way don't give a fuck for an ASBO.
Give me a cigarette or get your head kicked into.
The scary thing it's true because they can and will and well, they fucking do.

Ring Alarm! Emergency!
Calling out an SOS, the kids are after me.
Can and will fucking kill, bottling a stranger.
Now we're on the streets, I feel in danger!

Woah, woah.
My town ain't safe no more,
My streets are at war,
People on the streets are shouting danger, danger, danger!

They're shouting danger. Danger.

Yeah, just today somebody got shot up in the daylight,
The mandem put in hospital by kids just last night,
They gun-clapping, happy-slapping, shit it's not right.
The scary thing it's true because they can and will and well, they fucking do.

Ring Alarm! Emergency!
Calling out an SOS, the kids are after me.
Can and will fucking kill, things done change.
Now we're in danger!

Woah, woah.
My town ain't safe no more,
My streets are at war,
People on the streets are shouting danger, danger, danger!

They're shouting danger. Danger.

We're... in... danger!

My town, my streets.
Calling an SOS, the kids are after me.
These towns. These streets.

My town, my streets.
Calling an SOS, the kids are after me.
These towns. These streets.
Danger! Danger!

We're... in... danger! Danger!

Woah, woah.
My town ain't safe no more,
My streets are at war,
Yeah, people on the streets are shouting danger,
danger, danger!

They're shouting danger. Danger!

Pick up the pieces of broken society, people who only see hate.
Only futility, responsibility impossibility. Hostility.
Danger!
