some call me saloman, friends call me sal i'll leave you one day, i'll leave you all they're coming for me, i'm not afraid on my own i will obey ambassador from earth into the stars i count the blue clouds with the greys take note of sightings out in space i've packed my bags for the trip into the sky into the outer limits i'll leave my friends and my family on the day that they come for me i dream of the day when they'll come to take me away the little green men come to play (come to call my name) they'll call, they'll call, they'll call, they'll call me saloman

i long to leave, i'm not afraid we exchange messages until the day it'll happen soon, though it seems so long they'll code my name s-a-l-o-m-a-n i'll leave my friends and family
on the day that they come for me
the little green men come to play (they'll say, they'll say, they'll say)
i dream of the day when they'll come to take me away the little green men come to play (come call my name) and they'll call, they'll call, they'll call, they'll call they'll call, they'll call, they'll call me saloman
