ending summer before it began waves crash on the shore washing away words you plus me and me plus you and i won't be here again because i've been here before i know what's in store before any of you come around i'm through falling in summertime love affairs
i'm through falling in summertime love affairs i can't repair, no i can't repair my heart has a notion sail cross an ocean forget it all and start a new life but that cannot be done unsaid words unfinished weekends are stuck in my heart like a thorn in my side and i know i've been here before, i know what's in store before any of you come around

i'm through falling in summertime love affairs
i can't repair, no i can't repair now is the time realize
i'm through falling in summertime love affairs
i'm through falling in summertime love affairs i'm through.....
i'll always love.....
