Sono - Blame

Growing up, playing hard, looking at the future
Being loud, living fast, keep your eyes on me
Standing still, standing tall, brother be my shelter
Diving deep, jumping high, loosing energy
Loving less, keeping cool, learn your exercises Serving chilled being killed, be the the one who's blamed?
Feeling lost, talking much, living in the background
Saving lives, loosing games, time to feel ashamed

Tongue is tied, talk is loose, secret understanding
Making rules, breaking fools, survival is the game
Time is now, got no use for begging and demanding
Noone wins, noone looses, noone is to blame.....

Slipping round, 'walking wounded, hiding my revolver
Don't regret, be upset, make your life complete
Feeling high, passing by, don't know what I'm doing
Calling God, being taught, try to stop the greed
Speeding fast, turning brakes, living in the fast lane
Moving on, walking back, standing still would kill Smoking grass, body aches, what's happening to my brain,
Cameras on, live attack, big brother for a feel.

Tongue is tied, talk is loose, secret understanding
Making rules, breaking fools, survival is the game
Time is now, got no use for begging and demanding
Noone wins, noone looses, noone is to blame.....

Living wild, loving free, lauhging at the wheather
Heaven comes, heaven goes, solid as a rock
Nothing seems left for me need a different measure
Count me in, count me out, will this ever stop?

Tongue is tied, talk is loose, secret understanding
Making rules, breaking fools, survival is the game
Time is now, got no use for begging and demanding
Noone wins, noone looses, noone is to blame.....

Regards,

Kosmo
