(written by Sonya Isaacs and Keith Sewell)

Does my touch mean as much as it used to?
When the passion of our love was still new?
Though time can chill a heart
Oh I'm burning for you still
But Baby, I've forgotten how you feel.

Its been so long since I've heard you say you need me.
Its hard to hear it when he never talk at all.
Silence is heartache there's just one way to heal
Cause baby, I've forgotten how you feel.

Tell me that your love has stood the test of time.
Tell me that forever your heart is mine.
Baby wont you hold me until I know your love is real?
Cause Baby, I've forgotten how you feel.

Tell me that your love has stood the test of time.
Tell me that forever your heart is mine.
Baby wont you hold me until I know your love is real?
Cause Baby, I've forgotten how you feel.

Baby wont you hold me until I know your love is real?
Cause Baby, I've forgotten how you feel.
Yeah Baby, I've forgotten how you feel.
