So many answers
We had to find
So many mountains
We had to climb
So much baggage
So many miles
So many tears
So few smiles
And it did not come easy
It was not a game
Wasn't a given but
We overcame

And there's nothing between us but love anymore
Nothing to be sorry for
No excuses
No regrets
What you give is what you'll get
So let's tear down the walls
And open all the doors
There's nothing between us but love anymore

Holding on to what we got Letting go of what we're not
It's way too late
To turn back now
We couldn't change things anyhow
We've come too far
Seen too much
Given in
Ain't given up

And there's nothing between us but love anymore
Nothing to be sorry for
No excuses
No regrets
What you give is what you'll get
So let's tear down the walls and open all the doors
There's nothing between us but love anymore
