Workin part time to keep ourselves in tune
I ain't making much man!
Just look at my shows
I can't smoke!
I Can't save!
I can't save!
I can't save!
I can't save!
Won't survive
No rainy
So why am I still asking why?
Thanks for giving me a change
I may not amount to much
Some work too hard
Some love to hate
Some show up early
I'm always late
So why am I still asking why?
The dinosaurs are now extinct but their bones
Are still everywhere
Leaving giant holes in policies,
In pockets, my wallet, and the sky
So why aren't you still asking why?

There is a new leader since there has to be
Most of it still don't make much sense to me
The validity of the questions and the problems at hand
Cannot be assumed fixed by just one man
So why am I still asking why?
