The time was changing very fast, and I walked
A one of happiness I got that time.
All thing I had were destroyed by a one of unhappiness that like a robbed of something.
So, my all thing
You side face mirrored in the moonlight.
Made me mad also my everything.
If I was rejected to embrace you body, can I escape from howaday despair.
My heart still fell sense of touch I had in mind a midnight.
I hope my all thing that I never forget and precious do not melt away.
You fade away like fog.
Where do you going?
Please leave me alone.
If a time came back, I wish addicted your love just again
What should I doing hereafter?
You could not teach me anything.
What should I do? What can I do?
You could not teach me anything.
I grasp the pendant you gave me and sink deeply.
When my sorrow will disappear?
But please don't melt away
