I feel strange, can you help me?
I've been around the world too fast
You're the only one I noticed
of all the people I've been past
I will always listen to you
Losing battles in your mind
You don't have to tell me nothing
I know that you're on my side

Cant you help me
Can you help me
Feel a little less strange?

I feel strange, can you help me
I'm a little lost today
You're the only face i think of
When i cannot find my way
I could tell you what goes crossing
Always crossing through my mind
I don't need to tell you nothing,
I know that you're on my side

But you help me
Yeah you help me
You help me
Feel a little less strange

I feel strange, can you help me?
I've Been around the world too fast
You're the only one I noticed
Of all the people I've been past
You will always listen to me
Losing battles in my mind
You don't have to tell me nothing
I know that you're on my side

But you help me
Oh yeah you help me
Oh well you help me,
I feel a little less strange
Oh but but you help me
Yeah you help me

Oh you help me,
Feel a little less strange
