

Sorrowstorm "Caverns Of Grief"

The walls of dejection, of ancient affliction, do not have an end or escape

The darkness blinds my eyes with a sorrow. Crying blood for ages!

Crying blood for ages. Pain beyond my pain

Hope is a chasm for those who died today

Existence is black and plagued with fear, the waiting begins

Oh, these caverns!

How did I enter into the darkness

What possessed me to come this way.

Traveling through this cave of infinite grief

No-one is here for me except myself

Remember insignificant lies

Total annihilation of light for my eyes

Depression takes it's toll

Crying blood for ages in this infinite cave

No consolation!

Immerse in them; they are the fallen one himself; test the spirits of doom

And now we're here, forsaken by our desires, in a world which can reject us,

Can lure us, can destroy us. Take your sword, die with me.

I can't live beside me anymore. Changing within.

Salvation, I grasp you. I won't reject you anymore.

These walls of dejection, of ancient affliction do not have an end or escape

The darkness blinds my eyes with a sorrow. Crying
blood for ages!
