Well it is her blond hair, white skin
eyes and pearls
standing tall
now she is hurt

Shiny cars
blond hair, white skin
must be her

She's on walls
she's in dreams
I sleep beneath her snow white streams

Dyanne Thorne - Keeper of the Harem girls
Dyanne Thorne - Magic splinter gleams
Dyanne Thorne - How can I break your heart

It is her
she's got me down
to praise the ground that she walks upon

Baby love
she's reduced me
to the flesh and bones
I always knew I was

And I pray every day
that the world will explode
if I don't get her

Dyanne Thorne - Keeper of the Harem girls
Dyanne Thorne - Magic splinter gleams
