

Sorry About Dresden

"Butterflies"

Visit "Butterflies" on MotoLyrics.com

I spied a green light from my roommate's view
So little light in wintertime
I crossed the street that you crossed, too
But I still won't cross the line

It's not as easy as it seems
To do what you think is right
Am I still in your dreams
Or was it just that night?
I searched my room for a souvenir
So little of you I possess
Did not know how to take your remarks
But I took them none the less

It's not as easy as it seems
There's nothing with you in the dark
Am I still in your dreams
Or was it just a lark?

I haven't seen you in a week or two
I've used caffeine as a crutch
You gave me an invitation once
What gives you butterflies don't give you much
What gives you butterflies?

Visit Sorry About Dresden page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.