Every move the worlds destruction
We push forward to end the corruption
Today's world is a new ending
So try to stop it with a loose pending

More famished land, more famished people
Another leader overthron, from more we could hold

NOO we bring the fire
The fire burns inside
To burn the lifeless ones

Every move were pulled to perfection
Look around and see the convection
Tomorrow leads to a bad ending
You can't stop with what you're defending

More famished land, more famished people
Another leader overthrown, from more we could hold

NOO we bring the fire
The fire burns inside
To burn the lifeless ones

More famished lands, more famished people
Another leader overthrown, from more we could hold

More famished lands, more famished people
Another leader overthrown, from more we could hold

More famished lands, more famished people
Another leader overthrown
