It's meaningless to sacrifice, when death comes with ease, how can we heal, when the cure is diseased?
A cancer grows inside the womb of this world. We have no one to blame except ourselves.
I'm prepared to die, are you prepared to die? Coz everything will die. Are we fucking dead yet?

Welcome to the cemertery, you'll walk with grace amongst the dead.
Existing in a world that's completely dead inside.
Welcome the the afterlife.

Disconect from this reality; forget the lies you once believed.
Close your eyes so you can't see the burning children in the streets.

All generations bear their regrets, passing the torch of faith and neglect.
We've poisoned the well for those yet to be born, is it too late fix before we are gone?

Welcome to the cemertery, you'll walk with grace amongst the dead.
Existing in a world that's completely dead inside.
Welcome the the afterlife.

So what becomes of us now we're on the other side?
Nothing awaits us there but lies.

Our time is up, walk into the light.
We're bleedingout, fading from this life.

Will the human race ever change? Will it happen in my lifetime?
Is there nothing left to say? Yeah? Welcome to the afterlife.

Welcome to the cemertery, you'll walk with grace amongst the dead.
Existing in a world that's completely dead inside.
Welcom the the afterlife.

Our time is up, walk into the the light.
We're bleeding out, fading from this life.

Afterlife.
