The suffering caused by every broken promise.
A fallen angel born with broken wings.
A majestic lie without an ounce of truth.
And in this moment heaven starts to swallow you!

So many years I believed in you. (the lies you told)
You deceived me to my face.
Never again will I trust in you (trust in you)
And I won't shed my tears for your heart attack.

In loving memory of those soon to pass.
Rejoice in the regrets of this worthless soul.
Your faith has forsaken you, but I forsake my faith.
And with your dying breath I hear you cry in vain.
"Forgive me God!"

So many years I believed in you. (the lies you told)
You deceived me to my face.
Never again will I trust in you (trust in you)
And I won't shed my tears for your heart attack.

(Heart attack)

Your time is over now, your life is up.
Your life is over now, your time is...

Your time is!
Your time is!

NOW!

So many years I believed in you. (the lies you told)
You deceived me to my face.
Never again will I trust in you (trust in you)
And I won't shed my tears for your heart attack.

I said I don't believe in you, rest in peace, now and forever (father)
I said I don't believe in you, (save me), rest in peace.
