On the page in my mind
I saw the time
When Sun won't shine
Moon won't rise
And there was chaos in the skies
And suffering is my best friend
It doesn't end
It always wins
I'm never gonna know
Until it's out of control

I'm beat down
And raped of my dream
Robbed of my conviction
And told what I mean
Taken for granted and granted nothing
My mind is a ghost
My thoughts are a scream
Rise up
Revolt for a while
Remove myself
And remember how to smile
If money a problem you can take it back
It's one more heart attack

If I run if I hide will there be pride
Still locked inside of my heart?
Will my precious life be torn apart?
The telephone
The T.V. set can't save me yet
I'm cold with sweat
I'm never gonna know
Until it's out of control

I'm beat down
And raped of my dream
Robbed of my conviction
And told what I mean
Taken for granted and granted nothing
My mind is a ghost
My thoughts are a scream

Rise up
Revolt for a while
Remove myself
And remember how to smile
If money a problem you can take it back
It's one more heart attack

On the page in my mind
I saw the time
When Sun won't shine
Moon won't rise
And there was chaos in the skies
And suffering is my best friend
It doesn't end
It always wins
I'm never gonna know

I'm beat down
And raped of my dream
And told what I mean
Taken for granted and granted nothing
My mind is a ghost
My thoughts are a scream
Rise up
Remove myself
If money a problem you can take it back
