You know the strange television you watch
The one that you never plug in Lady with the locust heart her fire lion Sleeping in a black hole you know you know you know Watch the one that you never plug in I got this sharp piece of science and I can't see the soft underbelly of the Sky above me
I got this sharp piece of science and I can't see the soft
underbelly of the Sky above me
This sharp piece of science this sharp piece of science Fire engine red running down the back of my neck yeah Could we be invisible today laughing this is what you'd say I guess You know the strange teleision you watch the one that you never plug in
Lady with the locust heart her fire lion
Sleeping in a black hole you know you know it you know you know
I got this sharp piece of science and I can't see the soft
underbelly of the Sky above me
I got this sharp piece of science and I can't see the soft
underbelly of the Sky above me yeah Small Gods in your peripheral vision a beast called truth has risen Small Gods in your peripheral vision mad love walks with them all A beast called truth has risen and we're walking away with a shadow Falling like stars from the eyes of the night walking away with a shadow Falling like stars from the eyes of the night a beast called truth has risen Mad love walks with him small Gods in your peripheral vision Walking away with a shadow falling like stars from the eyes of the night
The eyes of the night the eyes of the night the eyes of the night the eyes Of the night
