I was broken; no one could ever heal me...
I wish I could be a fire
No one can ever dares to touch

I'm insane with this feeling I have inside
Mental torture now I have...
Can I look into your eyes once more?
(what if there's the answer I'm looking for? )

Chorus:
How can you ever heal a broken heart?
If later, you'll go away that fast
How can I pretend to be fine?
Yet my heart seem to be dying

(Ad lib)

Refrain:
I'm ready for the fact we're gone
But I'm lost in the dark...
Believing in your broken vows now
My tears were scattered...
Ca I look into your eyes once more?
What if there's the answer I'm looking for?

(Repeat chorus)

...How can you heal a wounded heart if you're the one who broke it down?
