(Carl L. Marsh)

dive down deeper than this wide-eyed a wintergreen bliss-out cool solid next to freezing wild words that have no meaning

such a deep love
such a strong kiss
such a deep love
never in love
is there a wrong kiss it's such a deep love

there's a wave and it breaks forever
you know
woman deep and it's man deep there's a wave and it breaks much harder than this like the sea when the world's asleep

legal city no redress wide-screen built to impress you get down stoop to conquer burn the phoenix and raise the songbird

now i got it i'm gonna keep it work it up into a state secret clean high next to heaven some sins are god-given.
